

Website Accessibility Statement

We want as many people as possible to be able to use our website. Generally, this means you should be able to:

- Change colours and contrast levels
- Increase and decrease the font sizes
- Navigate most of the website using just a keyboard
- Navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- Listen to most of the website using a screen reader

We have also tried to ensure that we have made the website text as simple as possible to understand.

Make your device easier to use

AbilityNet -

<https://link.edgепilot.com/s/fb51776f/vnbEfkN7vEmc8n25NCKKdQ?u=https://abilitynet.org.uk/> has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability or impairment.

This includes how to:

- Make text larger
- Magnify the screen
- Change fonts and colours
- Make your mouse pointer easier to see
- Using your keyboard instead of a mouse
- Making your device talk to you

How accessible this Website is

In October 2025 we outsourced our website to make it fully compliant with the new accessibility regulations – WCAG 2.2 AA

What to do if you can't access parts of this Website

If you need information on this website in a different format such as large print, easy read etc, please contact the Clerk: Email: clerk@reydonvillage.org

We will consider your request and get back to you as soon as possible.

Reporting accessibility problems with this Website

We are always looking to improve the accessibility of this Website. If you find any problems or think we are not meeting accessibility requirements, contact us by email at clerk@reydonvillage.org

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the accessibility regulations. If you are not happy with how we respond to your complaint contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS).

How we tested this Website

This entire website was reviewed externally and fully updated to meet the new requirements in October 2025 and internally in November 2025.

What we are doing to maintain accessibility

- Regularly monitoring the accessibility of our website
- Continuing to work to resolve any identified accessibility issues which are within our control.

Reydon Parish Council is committed to making its website accessible in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

Our original statement was adopted in 2024, reviewed in May 2025, updated in October 2025 and the new regulations formally adopted at the Parish Council Meeting in April 2026
