During the year Kerry has been focusing her work on the landscapes of Suffolk, Cornwall and Scotland.

She has developed mixed media work from walking, dowsing and responding to ritual landscapes.

3

RUTH ARCHER

📍 The Saltings, Bridge Rd, Reydon, IP18 6RR

During the past year Ruth has been focusing her work on writing and illustrating children's picture books. She has recently started using oils for landscapes and seascapes, really enjoying the depth of colour she can achieve. Ruth has also exhibited at the Crypt Gallery, St Ives, Cornwall.

4

JIM ARCHER

📍 The Saltings, Bridge Rd, Reydon, IP18 6RR

Jim has spent much of the last year creating a new studio space but has found time to continue painting street/rooftop scenes in oils as well as experimenting with oil pastels. Jim also exhibited last July at the Crypt Gallery, St Ives in Cornwall.

5

PATRICIA DAVIDSON

📍 14 Evans Close, Reydon, IP18 6PU

A graduate of the Glasgow School of Art, Patricia taught Fine Art and continues to paint, producing work based on her surroundings, both the natural and the built environment. She exhibits annually with others at the Aldeburgh Gallery and locally with Easterly Artists.

6

BILL HAWARD

📍 14 Evans Close, Reydon, IP18 6PU

Bill is a retired architect who uses line to describe the essential character of buildings and landscapes in East Anglia and beyond. This is developed by printing on coloured papers, cutting and mounting in layers as a collage. He exhibits annually at the Aldeburgh Gallery and locally with Easterly Artists.

7

SULA RUBENS RWS

📍 40 Wangford Road (opp. Randolph Hotel),
Reydon, IP18 6PY

Since graduating from Central St Martins School of Art in 1989, Sula has practised as a painter and printmaker, living, working and exhibiting in many countries and has immersed herself in various landscapes and their people. She has collaborated with artists, poets and musicians nationally and internationally.

8

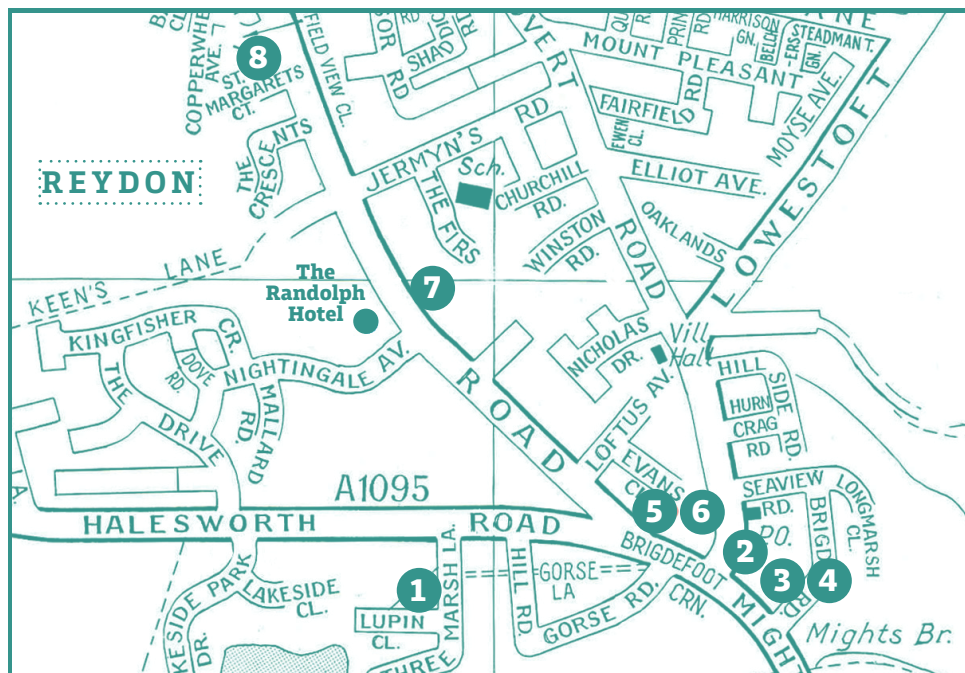

REBECCA BERGHESSE

📍 1 Fieldview Close, Reydon, Suffolk IP18 6PR

Although Rebecca's work is not figurative, it is a response to observations of the land and nature, using colour and shape in abstract images that invite our own memories, dreams or associations. The paintings, drawings and prints are both celebrations and contemplations.
